The Allies wanted revenge initially, but could not be seen to kill people out of hand without first giving them a chance to defend themselves. One could argue that a result of Nuremberg was the development of the geo-political post

The difference between the Nuremberg Trials and the TRC: A

Apartheid existed in the first place, I note, because of racist narratives of Afrikaner identity that fostered extreme racial prejudice, a strong perception of a "black threat," and a resulting symbolic politics of white domination.

By Stuart J. Kaufman University of Delaware October, 2012

The foreign relations of South Africa have spanned from the country's time as Dominion of the British Empire to its isolationist policies under Apartheid to its position as a responsible international actor taking a key role in Africa, particularly Southern Africa.
