The majority of graduates joining the workforce in this present era will be the millennial generation, born between 1994 and 2000. Millennials matter to employers because they are not only different from those that have gone before, they are also more numerous than any since the soon-to-retire Baby Boomer generation.

Over the past two years, state legislators across the country have launched an unprecedented series of initiatives aimed at lowering labor standards, weakening unions, and eroding workplace protections for both union and non-union workers. This policy agenda undercuts the ability of low- and middle-wage workers, both union and non-union, to earn a decent wage.
