A financial crisis is any of a broad variety of situations in which some financial assets suddenly lose a large part of their nominal value. In the 19th and early 20th centuries, many financial crises were associated with banking panics, and many recessions coincided with these panics. Other situations that are often called financial crises include stock market crashes and the bursting of ...

In Zambia, the last 14 years of strong economic growth raised the average per capita income to over $1,360 and made it a lower-middle-income nation. Zambia's 27 years of successful multi-party democracy, with three peaceful transitions between ruling political parties, has made the country one of the more stable in sub-Saharan Africa. Despite the recent growth experienced within Zambia, much ...
