A handgun holster is a device used to hold or restrict the undesired movement of a handgun, most commonly in a location where it can be easily withdrawn for immediate use. Holsters are often attached to a belt or waistband, but they may be attached to other locations of the body (e.g., the ankle holster). Holsters vary in the degree to which they secure or protect the firearm.

The two are interlinked, but customers can be loyal to your brand without being advocates (although the reverse can't really be true). A brand loyalist is someone who is personally loyal to your brand, but doesn't engage in promoting you to others. They're important, not only because they generate revenue, but because they possess the potential to become advocates.
