The Matrix defense is the term applied to several legal cases of a defense based on the Matrix films where reality is a computer generation – "simulism" – and that the real world is quite different from what reality is perceived to be. In using this defense, the defendant claims that they committed a crime because they believed they were in the Matrix, and not in the real world.

Franklin Roosevelt knew of the Pearl Harbor at least attack 6 weeks before it happened. I had first hand telephone conversations with retired Navy officer Duane Whitlock before he passed away in which he told me that he was part of the Navy decoding team that deciphered the Japanese code in the late 1930s. He was part of the group that intercepted the Japanese transmissions that indicated ...
